LEY PROMOTED TO PARTNER

Endless is delighted to announce that Warwick Ley has been appointed a Partner in the firm.

Warwick joined Endless in early 2006 and has since led the successful expansion of Endless in the North-West. Highlights during his Endless career include the sale of Neville Johnson Offices in March 2008 for a 7x return and, more recently leading the acquisition of Crown Paints.

Born in Australia and a keen cricket fan, Warwick's promotion earlier this year couldn't have been more timely. Coming just after the 5th Test of this year's Ashes Series, the news provided some much needed cheer after seeing his team return home empty handed.

Warwick is a popular and well-respected member of the Manchester business community and we hope that many will join us in congratulating him on this major career milestone.
